Monday Lunchtime Organ Concerts

2010

Mondays at 1:00pm

Admission
FREE

Welcome to the 2010 Lunchtime Organ Music series at Coventry Cathedral. This season offers a wonderful variety of music and musicians, from young award-winning organists to renowned concert artists.

This year we also welcome the Convivium Singers from Royal Holloway, University of London.

With our fabulous organ's vast range of sounds and a wider musical repertoire than ever, there is truly something for everybody.

Concerts last just over half an hour, and if you can stay for the whole concert then please do come and sit in the Chancel- it is a great place from which to hear the organ. Do feel free to applaud between items if you wish.

Admission to concerts is free, but we would ask you to support this series by contributing to the retiring collection - please give as generously as you can.
