• Carriers of Hope: Because You’re Loved
This is the title of a collection of forty-two original drawings by artist Rosie Brown, telling the story of the work done at Coventry-based charity, “Carriers of Hope”, which supports refugees, asylum seekers and migrants. The framed drawings will be on display inside the Cathedral from 14th September to 12th October 2017. It is the first time this exhibition has been shown and is a continuation of Coventry Cathedral’s tradition of, and commitment to, exhibiting work by contemporary British artists. “Carriers of Hope” is one of two Coventry charities which supports vulnerable people. Set up in 2009 by Sue Sampson, it has supported over 1000 families so far. The exhibition is a celebration of the work of the charity and encourages the audience into an intimate engagement with the individuals featured in the portraits.

Please send brief items of Cathedral news and events for the next edition of Cathedral Matters by the end of Tuesday 12th September for publication next Sunday to cathedral.matters@coventrycathedral.org.uk or phone 024 7652 1227.
