CATHEDRAL COMMUNITY NOTICES

Lent at the Cathedral
This year we’re offering two ways and two books with which to journey through the season together. Our main focus will be Rowan Williams’ Being Disciples, which we’ll explore week by week on Tuesday evenings at 7pm in the Provost’s Vestry. Alternatively, try The Power of Imperfection by our Holy Week preacher, Ruth Scott. Read it independently through Lent, and we’ll arrange an opportunity to discuss with Ruth while she’s in Coventry.
Details to follow – but you might want to order your chosen book soon. Canon Kathryn

Open Table Soup
Once a month the 6pm Sunday service OPEN is based around a simple meal of soup and bread, and volunteers are needed to make the soup! You can do this at home and deliver to the Cathedral on the day - maybe a group could get together or work separately to share the quantities (enough is needed in total for about 30 people). If you can help at all please contact Canon Kathryn or Haley Jones.

Maintenance Assistant
35 hours a week (£13,650 per annum)
We are looking for a keen individual to join our Maintenance Team which is responsible for the day-to-day maintenance of the Cathedral buildings, and all departments.
You’ll be working with experienced colleagues and will be given an opportunity to learn and develop a range of manual skills in a pleasant and friendly work environment.
If you think you fit the bill please email or phone Louise Nicholls for a job pack
