Welcome to everyone, especially if you are visiting or new to us! We’re delighted that you’re worshipping with us today. In this leaflet and on the Community Table (at the back of the nave near the Baptistry) you’ll find more about what is happening in and around the Cathedral in the next week or so.

The Dean and Canons this week
Canon Kathryn is Canon in Residence this week. Canon David is preaching at St George Rugby this morning. The Readers assisting at the Cathedral Eucharist are Stephen Baker (St Mary Walsgrave) and Paul Thomas (St John the Baptist Hillmorton). On Wednesday the Dean is travelling to Indiana for the Board Meeting of the Tantur Trust and to present the Cross of Nails dedicated this morning to Gethsemane Episcopal Church in Marion, and also to Valparaiso University with which Coventry Cathedral has had a longstanding friendship.

The Dean’s Prayer Points for March
This month of Lent is an opportunity for us to be deliberately turning to God and giving God priority in our lives and in the Cathedral. What does God want to affirm and bless? What does God want to be different? We pray for discernment and courage.

Marlon McLaughlin
Members of the Community will be sorry to hear that our Verger, Marlon, is moving to a post as Resettlement Lead Mentor at Rainsbrook Secure Training Centre near Rugby. His last Sunday on duty will be the 19th March. For those wishing to contribute towards a gift in appreciation of Marlon’s service there will be a collection box and a card to sign on the Community Table until Sunday 19th March.

NEXT SUNDAY 19th March: Coventry Half Marathon
For information on road closures www.coventryhalf.com/roadclosures or call 024 7683 2351. A small number of vehicle access permits is available on the Community table today.

In Memoriam
We are sorry to report that Michael Foster died suddenly on Sunday February 26th. Michael had a really deep love for Coventry Cathedral and did sterling service as Director of our Golden Jubilee Festival in 2012. A private cremation will be followed by a service in celebration of his life on Friday 24 March at 3.30pm in St Anne’s Church, Bewdley DY12 2AE.
