Welcome to Coventry Cathedral

Welcome to everyone, especially if you are visiting or new to us! We’re delighted that you’re worshipping with us today. In this leaflet and on the Community Table in the Cathedral (at the back of the Nave near the Baptistery) you’ll find more about what is happening in and around here.

- This week
  The Canon for Reconciliation Ministry is in residence this week. The Reader assisting at the Cathedral Eucharist today is Tony Thistlewood (St Mary’s, Walsgrave).

- Prayer Points for this month
  November is always a key month for the Cathedral as we remember the Coventry Blitz and welcome many visitors, and particularly school groups for Blitz week – as well as thousands of students for graduations. Please pray for the chance to share the message of reconciliation with all our guests.

- Dance into Worship, Friday 24 – Sunday 26 November
  If you would like to be part of this special event, in which 3 dances will be performed at the Cathedral Eucharist on Sunday 26th, the feast of Christ the King, please contact me today. John Brassington

- Coventry Pilgrim: Exploring the Eucharist
  Pilgrim is taking a break tomorrow to allow everyone to attend the Peace Lecture (see next item); it then continues each Monday at 7pm (from 20 November until 4 December). Kathryn Fleming

- “Justice and Peace – can we have both”: a lecture by Canon Paul Ostreicher
  This lecture by our former Canon for Reconciliation is being given on behalf of the Lord Mayor’s Committee for Peace and Reconciliation. It is in the cathedral tomorrow (Monday); 7pm (for music from the Edsel String Quartet) before the lecture begins at 7.30pm.

- Friends of Coventry Cathedral “Behind the Scenes” tours”, Monday 13 November
  Meet in St Clare’s at 10:30am for a tour of the Cathedral undercroft and 20 minute talks and tours by the Bell Ringers and Archivist (choose 1 or 2 tours). Sign up on the Community Table today.
