Welcome to everyone, especially if you are visiting or new to us! We’re delighted that you’re worshipping with us today. In this leaflet and on the Community Table (at the back of the Nave near the Baptistery) you’ll find more about what is happening in and around here.

- This week
  The Canon Pastor is in residence this week. On Tuesday, the Dean will present a Cross of Nails to Stretton C of E Academy, Coventry. Let us remember these new Partners in our prayers.

- Prayer Points for this month
  As we continue through Lent, we pray for a deepening of our Cathedral’s life in Christ, that we may grow in our sharing in the life and ministry of reconciliation. We pray also for a growth in our congregations that we may witness more effectively.

- Plumbline Festival: War Memorials Event, Monday 19th March
  From 10:00 to 4:30, join Civic Pride to explore how we, as a nation, have remembered the fallen and consider how communities can continue to remember in the future.

- Lent Studies, Wednesday 21st March, St Michael’s House
  The final study, entitled “Living Reconciliation”, will take place in the Brandt Suite on Wednesday evening from 7:00 to 8:30pm.

- Cathedral Walkers, Wednesday 21st March
  In my absence, I hope that details will be available on the Community Table. If you want to come, please email dcb@thezulu.co.uk by close next Sunday (18th). Dave Goodall

- Friends of Coventry Cathedral, Friendly Monday on 9th April
  We will meet at the entrance to the Coventry Watch Museum on Spon Street (beside Samoan Joe’s Bar) at 10:45am for a Presentation and Guided Tour. To reserve a place, sign up on the Community Table or email secretary@friendsofcoventrycathedral.org.uk on or before Sunday, 25th March (NB: places are limited and we need a minimum number).
• Coventry Pilgrimage 2018, starting on Saturday 31st March (Easter Eve)
Walk the Coventry pilgrimage route in short sections on the last Saturday morning of every month from Easter Eve to the Eve of Christ the King (24th November). Details on the Cathedral website, the Diocesan centenary website www.cov100.org or on the Community table.

• Personal Skills and Conflict Workshop, Wednesday 21st March
9am – 5pm at St Michael’s House: Sandra Cobbin, trainer and coach, will help you to understand yourself and others so that you can make different choices in response to tensions in our relationships using the lens of personal style preference. Cost: £50 standard, £35 Student and Concessions (Lunch, Tea and Coffee provided). To book or for more info: Cerys Smith (cerys.smith@coventrycathedral.org.uk) or on 02476 521289.

• Plumbline Festival: Cancellation of event on Saturday 31st March
Due to an unforeseen shortfall in funding, the team bringing ‘Stations of the Cross/ Stations of the Resurrection’ to Coventry Cathedral have unfortunately had to cancel the event. There is currently no plan to re-schedule this event but we will continue working with the team in the hope of being able to bring this work to the Cathedral in the future.

• Calling all stewards
Will stewards please look at the Special Services and Events list to see if they are able to help during Holy Week and Easter. Many thanks. Barbara Mobbs

• Flowers for Easter
There will be a flowery jug on the Community Table for the next 2 Sundays; any contributions towards some flowers for Easter will be most gratefully received. David East, Churchwardens

• Accommodation needed
Room, studio, or building to take care of – needed from April to at least August for single 30 year old. References provided. Please contact Adam at adamtrettel@gmail.com

• Cathedral Annual General Meeting, Sunday 29th April
This will be preceded by a light lunch. There are vacancies for elections to the following: Churchwardens, St. Michael’s Committee (members and Chairman), Cathedral Council and Deanery Synod. Full details of these vacancies and nomination forms will be provided on the Community Table. Please begin to give some thought to who you would like to nominate to these important governance roles. Graham Warren, Chairman, St. Michael’s Committee

• Visual Arts Committee
Are you interested in art? If so you might want to join the Cathedral’s Visual Arts Committee, which advises on the acquisition, display, and curation of works of art owned by or offered to the Cathedral for temporary or permanent exhibition. Or assist in the Archives, helping to look after the collections not on display, supporting the Cathedral’s Inventory, or become an interviewer for the Oral History Project. Please either speak to Richard Chamberlaine-Brothers (tel. no. 01926 491276) or email tedhiscocks@btinternet.com for an informal discussion.

Please send brief items of Cathedral news and events for the next edition of Cathedral Matters by the end of Tuesday 20th March for publication next Sunday to cathedral.matters@coventrycathedral.org.uk or phone 024 7652 1227.
