Welcome to everyone, especially if you are visiting or new to us! We’re delighted that you’re worshipping with us today. In this leaflet and on the Community Table (at the back of the Nave near the Baptistery) you’ll find more about what is happening in and around here.

- This week
The Dean is in residence this week. These special services/events take place in Holy Week:
  - Monday to Wednesday: Compline at 7:30pm
  - Maundy Thursday: Chrism Eucharist at 10:30am, and Liturgy of Maundy Thursday at 7:30pm
  - Good Friday: Liturgy of Good Friday at 9am, and Chilcott St John Passion at 6pm (see below)

- Prayer Points for this month
As we continue into Holy Week, we pray for a deepening of our Cathedral’s life in Christ, that we may grow in our sharing in the life and ministry of reconciliation. We pray also for a growth in our congregations that we may witness more effectively.

- Calling all stewards
Will stewards please look at the Special Services and Events list to see if they are able to help during Holy Week and Easter. Many thanks. Barbara Mobbs

- Flowers for Easter
There is a flowery jug on the Community Table today; any contributions towards some flowers for Easter will be most gratefully received. David East, Churchwardens

- Chorister congratulations
Congratulations to our Head Girl Chorister, Megan Bennett, on achieving a Distinction on her Grade 8 Singing Examination with the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music.

- Maundy Thursday Liturgy 7.30 p.m.
A special part of this service is the foot-washing re-enacting the moment at the Last Supper when Jesus washed his disciples’ feet. As usual Holy Trinity will provide 6 people and the Cathedral 6. Please let me know if you would be willing to participate this year. If you wish for more information do not hesitate to ask me. Canon Margaret
Coventry Cathedral Chorus, Good Friday at 6pm
We invite you to join us for a performance of Bach’s Motet ‘Jesu meine Freude’ and Bob Chilcott’s St John Passion. It is similar in outline to the Bach Passions and is led by an Evangelist (Matthew Minter). The simplicity and directness of the writing is moving and very accessible. Online tickets from www.ticketweb.co.uk, 0844 477 1000 or from Jill Pacey, email tickets@coventrycathedralchorus.com or 01676 532436. Special concessionary tickets for Friends of Coventry Cathedral and Patrons of the choir must be obtained from Jill Pacey.

Coventry Pilgrimage 2018, Saturday 31st March (Easter Eve)
The first section is from Meriden to Burton Green via Berkswell, a distance of 5.4 miles. Sending out service at St Laurence Meriden at 9.30 am; the walk begins at 10am. All welcome to walk (all or part of the distance). Details at www.cov100.org and on the Community table.

Plumbline Festival: Cancellation of event on Saturday 31st March
Due to an unforeseen shortfall in funding, the team bringing ‘Stations of the Cross/ Stations of the Resurrection’ to Coventry Cathedral have unfortunately had to cancel the event. There is currently no plan to re-schedule this event but we will continue working with the team in the hope of being able to bring this work to the Cathedral in the future.

Royal Maundy 2018
This year the service is to be held in St. George’s Chapel, Windsor, when 92 men and 92 women will receive Maundy money from the Queen, chosen because of the Christian service they have given to the Church and the community. One of the small number from this diocese is Sybil Hanson, a member of the Cathedral community, for her work in education and in particular the Diocesan Board of Education. We congratulate her and hope she enjoys her day in Windsor.

Friends of Coventry Cathedral, Friendly Monday on 9th April
We will meet at the entrance to the Coventry Watch Museum on Spon Street (beside Samoan Joe’s Bar) at 10:45am for a Presentation and Guided Tour. To reserve a place, sign up on the Community Table or email secretary@friendsofcoventrycathedral.org.uk on or before Sunday, 25th March (NB: places are limited and we need a minimum number).

Cathedral Annual General Meeting, Sunday 29th April
This will be preceded by a light lunch. There are vacancies for elections to the following: Churchwardens, St. Michael’s Committee (members and Chairman), Cathedral Council and Deanery Synod. Full details of these vacancies and nomination forms will be provided on the Community Table. Please begin to give some thought to who you would like to nominate to these important governance roles. Graham Warren, Chairman, St. Michael’s Committee

Visual Arts Committee
Are you interested in art? Why not join the Cathedral’s Visual Arts Committee, which advises on the acquisition, display, and curation of works of art owned by or offered to the Cathedral for exhibition. Or assist in the Archives, helping to look after the collections not on display, or do interviews for the Oral History Project. Please either speak to Richard Chamberlaine-Brothers (tel. no. 01926 491276) or email tedhiscocks@btinternet.com for an informal discussion.

Please send brief items of Cathedral news and events for the next edition of Cathedral Matters by the end of Tuesday 27th March for publication next Sunday to cathedral.matters@coventrycathedral.org.uk or phone 024 7652 1227.
