CATHEDRAL COMMUNITY NOTICES

Dean’s Administrator
35 hours a week (£18,500 per annum)
We are looking for someone special to provide secretarial, clerical and administrative support to the Dean’s office. This is a new role which will play an important part within the ministry, business and community life of the Cathedral.
You must be reliable, with an eye for detail, excellent organisation and communication skills.
Job pack and application form available from www.coventrycathedral.org.uk
The closing date for applications is Friday 10th February. Interviews are on Monday 20th.

Maintenance Assistant
35 Hours a week (£13,650 per annum)
We are looking for a keen individual to join our Maintenance Team which is responsible for the day-to-day maintenance of the Cathedral buildings, and all departments.
You’ll be working with experienced colleagues and will be given an opportunity to learn and develop a range of manual skills in a pleasant and friendly work environment.
If you think you fit the bill please email or phone Louise Nicholls for a job pack

Inventing Coventry Cathedral
Monday 6th February at 11am in the Lecture Hall (refreshments from 10.30)
Sarah Moss, novelist, travel writer and Creative Writing professor, talks about using Basil Spence’s story in her novel The Tidal Zone. The book tells the story of Adam and his family living with a medical emergency and its consequences. Adam is also an art historian researching Coventry Cathedral. Sign up on the Community Table.

Prayer for Christian Service
Monday 6th February
4pm-5pm in the Chapel of Unity
Come and hear about, and pray for, Fresh Start: a new initiative pioneered by Together for Change, seeking to mobilise churches in Coventry to both befriend and provide practical support to people from different cultural backgrounds. Introduced by Matt Robinson (Project Coordinator).

Welcome to everyone, especially if you are visiting or new to us! We’re delighted that you’re worshipping with us today. In this leaflet and on the Community Table (at the back of the nave near the Baptistry) you’ll find more about what is happening in and around the Cathedral in the next week or so.

The Dean, Canons and assisting Readers this week
Canon David is Canon in Residence this week. The Readers assisting at the Eucharist are Helen Allred (St Mary Nuneaton) and Kemble Everett (Holy Trinity Hatton).
This morning the Dean is preaching at St John the Baptist Fleet Street.

The Dean’s Prayer Points for January
As we start a New Year, we pray for our part in enabling our Cathedral Community to embody our vocation to reconciliation, learning to live with difference and celebrate diversity. We give thanks for the vital story of Coventry in a divided world and pray that we may be a beacon of hope.

Youell House needs you!
Do you have about 10 hours a week to spare to help support the Dean and his office team? This doesn’t have to be a long-term volunteering role and you will need to be comfortable using a computer and answering calls. We already have two lovely ladies (Thanks Ann & Brenda!) who help on a Monday and Wednesday morning but we could do with a little bit more help. If you feel you can please call in to see Lou or phone her on 024 7652 1247.

Madge Williams
Thank you to all who supported us following Madge’s death. Prayers of thanksgiving for her life will be included in Choral Evensong at 5.15 pm on Thursday 9th February, together with thanksgiving for the recovery of her grandson, Stephen.

Coventry Foodbank
This month I have taken 160 items to the Foodbank including those bought with gifts of £125 from 10 people. The next Foodbank Sundays are 5th February, 5th March, and 2nd April.

Please remember next Sunday is Foodbank Sunday
