Welcome to everyone, especially if you are visiting or new to us! We’re delighted that you’re worshipping with us today. In this leaflet and on the Community Table (at the back of the Nave near the Baptistery) you’ll find more about what is happening in and around here.

- This week
  The Dean is in residence this week. The Reader assisting at the Cathedral Eucharist today is Kemble Everitt (Holy Trinity, Hatton).

- Prayer Points for this month
  As we continue through Lent, we pray for a deepening of our Cathedral’s life in Christ, that we may grow in our sharing in the life and ministry of reconciliation. We pray also for a growth in our congregations that we may witness more effectively.

- Friends of Coventry Cathedral, Friendly Monday on 5th March
  Canon Sarah Hills and Cerys Smith will tell ‘Reconciliation Stories’ at 10:30 in St. Michael’s House. To reserve a place for the talk, sign up on the Community Table today or send an email to secretary@friendsofcoventrycathedral.org.uk.

- Lent Studies, Wednesday 7th March, St Michael’s House
  These take place in the Brandt Suite every Wednesday evening during Lent from 7:00 to 8:30pm. This week’s study is entitled “Justice and Peace”.

- International Women’s Day, Thursday 8th March, St Michael’s House
  Join us from 7:00-8:30pm, when Hanna Yaffe (www.lullabies-of-loss.org) will present Lullabies of Longing & Loss: A Global Perspective of Mothers’ Voices, an evening of storytelling and song from various cultural traditions providing a message of HOPE in times of challenge or hardship. You can find out more in the events section of the SMH website (www.coventrycathedral.org.uk/smh/). Stacy Nelson
• Preparation of Mothering Sunday posies on Saturday 10th March
  The Mothers Union members will be arranging the Mothering Sunday posies on Saturday morning 10th March in the Lecture Hall. If anyone has any greenery we would be delighted to have it. Evelyn Warwick. 02476 273111

• Coventry Conversation: Advocacy and Reconciliation, Tuesday 13th March
  Please join us at 6.30pm to 8.30pm for our third conversation in our Coventry Conversation series. The topic of the conversation will be on Advocacy and Reconciliation with Mark Simmons, formerly CEO of Cord. All points of view are welcome. Cerys Smith

• Peace and Poetry Mass, Friday 16th March at 7:00 pm
  A celebration of poetry, and a thanksgiving for our world and our lives. A service of Holy Communion, led by Paul Edmondson and open to people of all faiths and none.

• Peace and Poetry Festival, Saturday 17th March from 12:00 noon
  The work and thoughts of poets Malcolm Guite, Pádraig Ó Tuama, Michael Symmons, Patience Agbabi and Anthony Owens promise to be a launch pad into fresh ways of thinking about something that matters so much to us here.

• Chorister congratulations
  Congratulations go out to our 11 year old chorister, Sebastian Carrington, who achieved a Distinction in his DipABRSM singing diploma examination recently. Kerry Beaumont

• Accommodation needed
  A family who have been working for St Mark’s Church in Versailles are planning to relocate to Coventry in early July and are looking to rent a 3 bedroom house in Binley, Whitley or Stoke Aldermoor. If anyone knows of anything suitable, please contact Isabel Merrifield in the office who can pass the information on (isabel.merrifield@covlec.org.uk).

• Britten’s War Requiem 14th November
  We hope you have the date in your diary, and tickets will be available soon. If you would be interested in sponsoring the performance, please would you speak to Dean John or to Matt Feeley, in the Cathedral Office.

• Website for the 100th anniversary of Coventry Diocese: www.cov100.org
  The site will be updated throughout the year, so remember to keep an eye on it. You can also share your memories by sending them to anna.laycock@covcofe.org.

• Cathedral Prayer Circle
  In an emergency, a group of us is ready to pray for your concerns. Meg Bowen 01926 856928.
