

Community of the Cross of Nails International Gathering, 24-28 May 2023

All sessions below will be livestreamed at <https://www.facebook.com/CCNCoventry/> (no Facebook account needed) and worship at 8.30am, midday and 5.15 (Weds and Thurs) or 5.30 (Friday) pm each day and the Sunday Eucharist at 10.30am, at <https://www.facebook.com/cathlivestream>

Wednesday 24th May

2pm Formal welcome from the Dean and introduction to the reconciliation team

3pm Introduction to Coventry Cathedral's Arts and Reconciliation ministry: Revd Canon Mary Gregory

7.15pm Building a culture of justice and peace: our role as reconcilers: Panel discussion with our CCN International Board, with audience Q&A, chaired by Dean John

Thursday 25th May

9.30am The CCN in 2023, and going forward - Dean John Witcombe/Alice Farnhill

10.30am Where can the CCN and the environmental movement find common ground for action? Paul Bodenham, from Green Christian, in conversation with Andii Bowsher, chaplain and peacemaker, followed by discussion

2pm Land, justice and belonging: Canada's road to reconciliation, led by the Revd Michael Shapcott, of the Sorrento Centre in British Columbia, and Chair of the CCN Canada Board.

Friday 26th May

10.30am Reconciliation in the midst of conflict: Dean John in follow-up conversation with Revd Canon Paul Oestreicher on war in Ukraine and our response as reconcilers; followed by Revd Su McClellan of Embrace talking with Daniel Munayer, Executive Director of Musalaha, about the impact of long-standing conflict on community.

See the original conversation between Paul Oestreicher and John Witcombe last May 2022 here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qS-ZCeGpy4>

2pm Coventry Cathedral and RISING Global Peace Forum Panel discussion:

'It is what it is: How could it be different?': 25 years on from the Good Friday Agreement in Northern Ireland

7.15pm Peacebuilding and moral jeopardy: lessons from Northern Ireland led by David Porter

Saturday 27th May

9.30am Follow-up thoughts on justice and reconciliation, led by the UK & Ireland Board

10.30am Workshop: Resourcing reconciliation: meeting needs led by Emma Griffiths, Head of Reconciliation and Education at Coventry Cathedral, with resources and learning from our ICONS schools projects.