

The Cathedral Church of St. Michael, Coventry

The appointment of Tenor Lay Clerk –

The Cathedral

Coventry Cathedral is recognised internationally for its ministry of peace and reconciliation. The striking architecture of the new building sitting alongside the ruins of the bombed Cathedral provides a powerful symbol that is ever more relevant in our increasingly divided world. It is the spiritual home of a committed congregation of worshippers who, together with large numbers of visitors, pilgrims and tourists, enjoy the diversity of liturgy and music which comprises the worshipping life of the Cathedral.

The Way We Worship

Since 1962, Coventry has enjoyed a reputation for liturgical innovation. The Dean and Canons are committed to offering a home for the wide range of traditions found within Anglicanism. This commitment to respect for diversity is also a part of our worship. We seek to reflect the breadth of the Church of England, representing its varying traditions with integrity and style.

As a consequence, Sunday worship at the Cathedral sees several hundred people across our four acts of worship. The Cathedral Eucharist and Choral Evensong (and the said service at 8 am) are formal in style (there is a more detailed description below). An informal service, with a simple structure of music, teaching and prayer, is held on the second Sunday of each month. The Cathedral Clergy are committed to this provision, regarding them as equally important, with none the poor relation of another.

The Primary Purpose

Our vision for the Cathedral includes making it a centre of musical excellence. In particular, we are looking for someone who will be able to make the most of the opportunities afforded by Coventry becoming UK City of Culture in 2021 and help to build on this for the future.

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Lay Clerk at Coventry Cathedral. Interviews will take place by mutual agreement.

This letter is intended to help you complete the application form. Please read it carefully before the completion of your application form. If you have any difficulties or questions, please contact Stella Perry at stella.perry@coventrycathedral.org.uk, +44 (0)24 7652 1227 or Rachel Mahon at rachel.mahon@coventrycathedral.org.uk

The application form is your opportunity to provide all the information we need to help us understand how you meet the requirements of the job, and plays an important part in the selection process allowing us to short-list candidates for interview, and helping as a basis for the interview itself. To ensure fairness to all applicants, short listing decisions are based solely on the information you supply on your application form. Even if we already know you as current or previous employee, it is important that you complete the form in full.

All vacancies are accompanied by a job description and a person specification setting out the main duties and responsibilities of the post in the job description, and the knowledge, skills and abilities we are looking for in the person specification.

Please read this information carefully as you will not be short-listed for interview unless you meet the essential criteria described in the Person Specification.

Depending on the number of applications, it may not be possible to shortlist for interview all candidates who meet the Essential Criteria. However, we guarantee to interview all disabled applicants who meet the Essential Criteria.

If you wish to apply by e-mail, you will need to download the form onto your computer, complete it and return it via email to rachel.mahon@coventrycathedral.org.uk or by post to Recruitment, Coventry Cathedral, Youell House, 1 Hill Top, Coventry, CV1 5AB. Please remember that email is not a secure form of communication.

Ensure you clearly state the full job title and type or complete your form legibly in black ink, to allow for photocopying.

We are unable to accept CVs so please do not attach your CV, references, or copies of educational certificates to your form. If there is insufficient room on the form in a particular section, you can simply attach an extra page and mark it clearly with your name and the job title, indicating the number of the relevant question.

The 'Relevant skills & experience' section of the form is where you make your case for the job and is your opportunity to tell us specifically why you wish to apply and what makes you a suitable applicant. You should include anything you feel would be useful in support of your application telling us as much as possible about yourself in relation to all the items listed in the job description.

Please remember that those involved in the selection process cannot make assumptions about you. - tell us everything relevant to your application and complete all the sections on the form

Data Protection

Information provided by you as part of your application will be used in the recruitment process. Any data about you will be held securely with access restricted to those involved in dealing with your application and in the recruitment process. Once this process is completed the data relating to unsuccessful applicants will be stored for a maximum of 6 months and then destroyed. If you are the successful candidate, your application form will be retained and form the basis of your personnel record. By signing and submitting your completed application form you are giving your consent to your data being stored and processed for the purposes of the recruitment process, equal opportunities monitoring and your personnel record if you are the successful candidate.

Equal Opportunities

Information provided by you on the Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form will be used to monitor our equal opportunities policy and practices. This part of the form will be detached from the main body of the application form and will not form any part of the selection process.

Work Permits

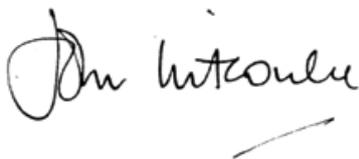

Under the Asylum and Immigration Act, we are required to check that anyone taking up employment with us has the legal right to work in the UK. Short-listed applicants will be asked to provide us with documentary evidence to support their entitlement to work in the UK prior to any offer of employment being made.

DBS Checks

In line with our safeguarding policy, some employees and volunteers working in specific roles at the Cathedral will be subject to satisfactory clearance being obtained from the Disclosure and Barring Service. The check will be undertaken as part of the appointment process with the successful candidates.

In the event of an offer of employment being made, we will take up references and reserve the right to validate all information entered on the application form.

We expect all our staff and employees to be in sympathy with our Christian values and help us to achieve the vision that we have set ourselves to work towards. A summary copy is attached for information.

Tenor Lay Clerk

£6,000 per annum

Coventry Cathedral is well known internationally as a striking example of twentieth century church architecture and for its ministry of reconciliation. It has a committed core of worshippers who delight in the combination of traditional and contemporary liturgy and music and it attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors both from this country and abroad. We are seeking to appoint someone who will join our team of musicians to contribute positively to our fine musical tradition as we reach out to a generation not used to church and work towards City of Culture 2021.

The post offers an average of 7 hours per week, spread over two to six days and worked mostly over the weeks of term time, together with Christmas, Holy Week and Easter. You will need to operate flexibly to fit the needs of the Cathedral Choir.

The post is subject to DBS clearance, and will include weekend and bank holiday working.

Auditions and interviews will take place at the Cathedral at a mutually convenient time, and if successfully, the position would commence as soon as the necessary clearance and training have taken place.

The Organs

Coventry Cathedral's organ is one of the finest in the UK, well-known as an excellent instrument both for recitals and for accompanying services. With four manuals, nearly five thousand pipes and an eclectic stop-list, it is a very versatile instrument, accommodating most schools of music with integrity. Its vibrant sound (and the Cathedral's cavernous acoustic) makes it particularly appropriate for 19th and 20th century works. Built by Harrison and Harrison of Durham, it is also maintained by them. It was fully cleaned in 2001 and there is an on-going programme of restoration.

There is a six-rank, one manual with pedals Norwegian organ made by the Torkildsen Brothers of Aasen in 1966, currently sited in the Nave near the Chapel of Unity, and a four rank chamber organ built by Peter Collins in 1972 which is currently placed in the Chancel area. There is a one manual (8',8',4') Goble harpsichord in the Nave next to a Bechstein grand piano. In addition there are grand pianos in the Song School and upright pianos in the Choir Vestry, Chapter House, music store room and Chapel of Unity.

The Choirs

There are three main choirs associated with the Cathedral

1. The Cathedral Choir (Two separate treble choirs (one of 20 boys, one of 21 girls) who sing regularly by themselves and with the Lay Clerks, Choral Clerks and Choral Scholars)
2. Coventry Cathedral Chamber Choir (22 auditioned volunteers)
3. Coventry Cathedral Chorus (performing major choral works in concert with orchestra), which is directed by Paul Leddington Wright, the Cathedral's former Associate Director of Music.

In term time, the Cathedral Choir sings on Sundays at the 10.30 a.m. Cathedral Eucharist and 4.00p.m Choral Evensong. The usual pattern is Boys & Clerks and Scholars in the morning and Girls & Clerks and Scholars in afternoon, alternating weekly. Choral Evensong on Saturdays is often sung by a visiting choir. There are two other Choral Evensongs each week in term time (Wednesdays 5.15pm sung by the boys and Thursdays 5.15pm sung by the girls) and each sung service is preceded by a rehearsal. The boys also rehearse on Tuesdays (4.20pm) and Saturdays (9.00am), and the girls rehearse on Tuesdays (5.40pm) and Saturdays (10.30am). The choirs usually go on a tour every year, either abroad or to somewhere in the UK, though an international invitation to perform will lead to this schedule being adjusted. Most services are live-streamed by the Cathedral on its website and social media pages.

The normal schedule for Lay Clerks would be in school term time:

Wednesday 6:30-7:30pm – rehearsal

Wednesday or Thursday 4:30 rehearsal for 5:15pm Evensong OR Wednesday 7:30 for 8:00pm Compline (it is hoped to expand to this eventually, although this is not currently the pattern)

Sunday 9:30am rehearsal for 10:30am Eucharist

Sunday 3:00pm rehearsal for 4:00pm Evensong

Additionally, there are extra services for Holy Week, Good Friday, Maundy Thursday, Easter Sunday, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day as well as a small number of extra services and concerts (often on a Saturday) throughout the year at which attendance is expected (advance notice would be given). Lay Clerks would be expected to attend choir tours.

The Liturgical Department

The Liturgical Department of the Cathedral is headed by the Canon for Worship and Community (Canon Kathryn Fleming), who is a Residentiary Canon. The staff consist of the Director of Music (Rachel Mahon), the Assistant Director of Music (Luke Fitzgerald), the Head Verger (and the Verger Team), and the Organ Scholar. There are also a number of voluntary posts, such as Chief Steward, Head Server, and so on. The Liturgical and Music Department have an office base within the Cathedral.
